

For Immediate Release

Ballpark Broadcasting and Sports Canada TV to Partner Again for Live Video Broadcasts at 2015 WBSC World Men's Softball Championship

The Host committee of the 2015 WBSC Men's World Softball Championship in association with Ballpark Broadcasting and SportsCanada.TV is please to introduce to softball fans around the world a premium live video broadcasting service.

Event chairman Bryan Kosteroski states "We are excited to offer this fantastic service to softball fans around the world. Our two partners in this event will ensure that no matter where ever you are on this huge planet you will be part of the action".

Live streaming video broadcasts will be offered for all 65 games played over the 10 days of the championship. The broadcasts will be a joint venture between SportsCanada.TV and Ballpark Broadcasting. SportsCanada.TV will provide the video production for each game and Ballpark Broadcasting will provide the play by play and color commentary for 50 of the 65.

2015 is the second year in row that Ballpark Broadcasting and Sports Canada TV will be teamed to deliver state of the art, high definition live streaming video broadcasts, of an ISF/ WBSC Championship to a world-wide audience.

In 2014 the two broadcasting concerns produced 54 live stream video broadcasts during the 10 days of the ISF Junior Men's World Championship in Whitehorse. The quality of the broadcasts received rave reviews from a world-wide audience of over 80,000 views.

The in-the-booth broadcast crew of Ballpark Broadcasting at this event will feature a 5 man crew consisting of: Kyle Smith, Lance Winn, Joe Todd, Blair Setford and Jim Flanagan. The Ballpark Broadcasting quintet has been together for the better part of a decade and has broadcast hundreds of games to softball fans around the world. The five, brings years of experience and knowledge of the men's international game to the booth.

Sports Canada TV will be headed up by producers Choyal Brown and Kat Britten, along with their camera crew of Adam Donnelly, Gillian Landrigan and Adam Yucker. In just a few short years Sport Canada TV has become the largest online amateur sports network in Canada.

Tourism Saskatchewan Deluxe Video Stream Package 56 round robin games & 16 playoff games

$24.95 Canadian Funds

Tourism Saskatchewan World Championship Playoff Round Video Stream Package for 16 playoff games

$19.95 Canadian Funds

Click here to order