“By Golly” - Twins lose Heart-breaker in extra inning....

SoCal, Circle Tap, The Farm, Orillia, Broken Bow and upstart Albaugh win second matches...

As predicted, the favorites won second round match-ups with the exception of the hometown Kitchener Hallman Twins who lost a heart-breaker to unheralded Elkhart, IA Albaugh Inc. The mid-west boys, a squad unfamiliar to fans in the east, earned their second shutout victory of the early going on the arm and bat of hard-working southpaw Karl Gollan. The resident of Bluegrass, IA effectively mixed off-speed pitches, low in the strike zone to keep the Twins at bay through seven regulation innings. Lady Luck appeared to avoid the Twins and support Gollan, as a couple of line drives to the outfield and hot shots on the infield Mar-Co clay drew a bead directly to Albaugh's well-positioned fielders. In the bottom of the 7th, Twins appeared destined to

WOLFE RUNS; SHARKS WIN

Orillia Riversharks Ryan Wolfe slides to beat the throw to 2B as Midland Explorers Steve Horning waits for the ball and shortstop Todd Schultz watches the play unfold. Wolfe got on base three times and scored twice courtesy team-mate Steve Mullahey's pair of rbi-producing singles as Sharks shut out Midland 2-0.

Behind the scenes at the ISC....Game Controllers

Roy Stout has been the World Tournament Games Controller for many years. He's retired from the US Navy, is an active umpire, and lives in Lake Hughes, California. Lake Hughes, Roy tells me, is on the flight path for the returning Challenger space craft. When the TV reports that the flight is landing at Edwards Air Force Base, he can look out his door and see it going overhead. Roy uses his experience and contacts in the ISC world to keep the pre-game negotiations calm and orderly, as only a retired navy salt can. Watching Roy work his magic with competing team managers last year in Kitchener last year was a joy to behold. All these top flight ISC teams hold Roy in high regard and respect his pre-game leadership.

Joining Roy this year and assisting him as games controllers are three volunteers who held identical roles in 2006.

Bob McKillop is a former University of Waterloo hockey and football coach, and currently administers the huge Kitchener Minor Hockey Association. Bob was coach of the Waterloo Warriors hockey team that won the Canadian University hockey championship in 1972, and is a member of the U of W Athletic Hall of Fame along with his team.

John MacTavish is one of the most well-known fastball fans in Ontario. He attends most of the Major tournaments, here in Ontario from Moncton to Orillia, to Perth and has been behind the screen in Michigan, Missouri, North Dakota and Wisconsin, and even attended the ISF world championships in New Zealand. With that experience and his knowledge of the game, his friendship with the managers and players in the ISC, and the respect that he has gained in the fast-pitch community makes John a great Game Controller.

Glenn Moeser is a local fastball legend. There is not a fastball park in Ontario that Glenn has not been in. He is one of the founders of the Waterloo CHYM's, the forerunner of the current Kitchener Hallman Twins. Glenn has managed some great ball players, knows the rest of them, and has the experience to help Roy and the rest of the Games Control crew keep the games running on time, and keeping the fans and players up to date on the flow of the tournament. Story by Dennis Dosman, ISC Volunteer

ISC TRIVIA

Yesterday's answer - Kitchener, with support from Cambridge, has now hosted the ISC World Tournament three times in six years, (2002, 2006 and 2007) - the most by any community in Canada.

Question #1 - what other Canadian cities have hosted The ISC? - Saskatoon, SK (1987); Victoria, BC (1990 & 1997); Summerside PEI (1994);

Question #2 - which city has hosted the tournament the most times (and how many?)

Rock Island, IL - 10 times (1961-1973)

Kimberly, WI - 10 times (1972-2003)

Today's Question - Who are the top four players participating in the 2007 Tournament that have been selected the most times to the ISC All-World team - (hint - they all play the same defensive position) push a run across. With one out, Todd Budke walked, was replaced by speedy Matt Lynch as a runner. Todd Levy singled, advancing Lynch to 2b, short of the coveted 3rd sack. A wild pitch quickly moved the runners up 60 feet. Chris Shewfelt was intentionally walked to load the bases with one out. Gollan dug deep to strike out Ron White, providing DP Dave Bailey with the opportunity to become the home-town hero for the evening. Bailey and Gollan tangled – with a 2-2 count Bailey fouled off four pitches before delivering what appeared to be the knock-out punch with a fly deep to left field. However, it was caught just 6 feet short of the fence. Tied at 0-0, it appeared that a lengthy extra-inning affair was ahead. In T-8, Albaugh's go-to-guy, the effervescent Gollan delivered the heart-breaker, pounding a Todd Martin pitch "bye-bye" over the right-field fence. It was deja-vu for Gollan who hit a similar game-winning HR on Friday to defeat St. Thomas). In B-8, reliever Terry Luster of Bunceton, MO was flawless as he struck out three Twins for the save – Final Score Albaugh 1 Twins 0. Twins now play Tuesday morning at 11:00 am against winner of the Plangger's vs Pueblo game.

SUNDAY ON THE DIAMONDS

SoCal Pit Lucas Mata fans 12 Aspen Interior batters in 4-2 win...
Circle Tap's OF Steve Schucker has 2nd 2-hit day including HR against Scarborough Royals.....
Orillia's Pit Frank Cox has 12 Ks in 2-0 win over Midland Explorers.....
Broken Bow Pit Andrew Kirkpatrick has 17 Ks in 7-2 win over Green Bay's Townline

SCHWEYER DELIVERS FOR FARM

Madison WI The Farm Tavern Pit Rob Schweyer provided a great mound performance, fanning 12 Portland Demarini batters as team-mates offence provided a flurry of runs in an 8-0 win. The Farm, seeded #6, rarely misses the final day playoffs.

CARROL FORBES FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

At the ISC 2006 Board of Directors meeting, the awarding of a $500 Scholarship commencing in 2007 was approved. Eligible students must have completed one semester in college and be or have been affiliated with the ISC Developmental Programs.

FIRST RECIPIENT

At the Hall of Fame breakfast yesterday, the 1st scholarship was awarded to Andrew Putnam, from Cambridge, ON. Andrew is enrolled in 4th year at University of Waterloo (Recreation & Business). He played with the Waterloo Red Dogs in 2002 and with Scarborough Wolverines in 2006-07. Andrew's father David accepted on his behalf as Andrew was unable to attend - he and his Scarborough team-mates were in Prince Edward Island NS winning the 2007 Canadian Junior Gold Medals.

Congratulations Andrew, and fellow Waterloo players Brandon Horn and Cam Hauck and their Wolverine team-mates.
