YAKIMA, Wash. — Most Valuable Pitcher Colby Miller pitched a complete game with four strikeouts and had two hits and two RBI to lead the Dirt Dawgs of Yakima to a 6-2 win over K-Club of Seattle in the title game of the Cinco de Mayo men's fastpitch tournament last weekend at Kiwanis Park.

Miller was named the most valuable pitcher of the eight-team tournament and teammate Blake Kohler, who was 2 for 4 with two runs in the title game, was tabbed the most valuable player.
